AFRICAN Artists

We are excited to invite artists of every discipline to take part in a vibrant celebration of African American creativity, culture, and expression. Whether you are a painter, poet, dancer, sculptor, filmmaker, designer, musician, photographer, digital creator, or visionary of any kind—your voice and artistry belong in this moment. If you create, we want to celebrate you. PLEASE contact Rev. Jennifer Strayhorn by email jstrayhorn@westsidembc.org or text (314)703-4928 by Friday February 6th, 2026. Please share what your form of artistry and your contact information.

Join us as we uplift your work, share your perspective with the church community, and shine a light on the creative spirit that continues to inspire.

ATTENTION: There is an important new law that has established financial compensation for cancer survivors or family members of victims of several different types of cancers who lived, worked or attended school in one of 21 ZIP codes in St. Louis County, St. Louis City and St. Charles County. Don't miss this opportunity.

Please check out this link to complete an application online.
